

- How do I meet someone new/Get to know them?

- Face the other person; Smile & look them in the eye; Give a firm handshake; State your name clearly and loudly enough to be heard; If you need more information, ask a question.

- What does it mean to “Collaborate” with others?

- • I respect other perspectives, especially when they are different from mine
- • I show kindness, consideration and care for others.
- • I know that my attitude and how I treat others have an impact.

- At First Tee, we care about the impact of our words and actions. The things we say and do matter, and when we show care for how our words and actions make others feel, we demonstrate respect and courtesy. First Tee participants are encouraged to not only collaborate and work with others, but also to learn from and appreciate both our similarities and our differences, accepting fellow players for who they are and the unique qualities and characteristics they bring to the course. Our world is filled with opportunities to learn from and Collaborate with Others, while having fun! When we treat one another with respect, we help them to feel valued and important, and when we act with courtesy, we show kindness, consideration, and care. In the game of golf, and in the game of life, we have opportunities to demonstrate respect and courtesy for ourselves, others, and our surrounding each and every day. Welcome to First Tee: Let’s Work Together!

- Follow Up Questions:

- What does collaborating well with others look, sound, and feel like?
- Why are respect and courtesy important on the golf course? At school? At home?
- What are some ways we can have a positive impact with our words and actions?
- Will there be people it is hard to collaborate with?
- What do I do when someone does not want to collaborate with me?
